SCHOOL SONG

Let's give a cheer for the orange and blue
Waving forever,
Forever pride of old Clarke County
May she droop never
Let's give a cheer for our school today
Cheer for the team we play
On to the goal we'll go hand in hand for Clarke County.
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah! Yea!

THE TALON

VOLUME EIGHT

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
CLARKE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL
1957

FOREWORD

When we began the school year 1956-57, this Talon staff was unaware of the intricacies that come with each edition of this annual. Since that time we have learned to master the little details and the big problems that have confronted us day by day. We have overcome the difficulties, profited by our mistakes, and worked hand-in-hand with each other. We have done all this with but one purpose in mind--to bring to the reader, now or later, fond memories of the school year 1956-57 in this eighth volume of The Talon.

DEDICATION

The class of 1957

dedicates this

Volume Eight of "The Talon" to

MRS. MILDRED S. RILEY

In grateful recognition of her understanding and help for us, her loyalty and faith in us, her guidance which has carried us through many difficulties, and her keen interest in all our activities, we pay tribute to our friend and teacher, Mrs. Riley.

CLASS POEM

Our School and Destiny

From these hallowed walls, where will her dwellers go?
How much have they left? What do they know?
These are words, the thoughts, the hope
Of our school's spirit extending its scope.

Let me speak for the dwellers of this abode;
Hear my humility, my heart's burdened load.
My message, I give freely to all;
The spirit of our class will stand, and never fall.

Clarke County, my school, whose name will remain
In my breast intrenched and untouched, always the same;
I speak for this school, for a way of life
Which will carry me through good times and strife.

I speak praise for the mentors who patiently led,
That our thirst for knowledge might be fed;
Who gave of self, that we might know
The power, the wisdom, the way to go.

I speak of the tie that binds our class,
Though the good times, the troubled times, are now in the past,
The class of this year will be heard to say,
"I remember the school, the class, and the day-
The school--Clarke County--the class--'57; and the day, our day."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1957, of Clarke County High School, being of sound mind and memory, make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Upon our graduation we hereby will and bequeath the following:

Ralph Alger wills his band uniform and instruments to Billy Royston.

Dennis Barr wills his whiskers to Bobby Barr.

Juanita Boyd wills her "Juicy Fruit" gum to Lillie Waters.

Robert Boyd bestows upon Jerry Bemusdaffer his knowledge of D.O.

Winona Boyd wills the sparkle of her diamond ring to someone who hasn't been so fortunate as to receive one yet.

Patricia Brill wills her typing ability to Nancy Brill, hoping she will secure a good job.

Jane Buckley bestows her sewing ability on Janet Lofton. Keep up the good work, Janet.

Robert Carter leaves his desk to some studious junior.

Alfred Chapman leaves the delivery truck in one piece to Preston Kercheval.

Bobby Nat Collis leaves to Peter Levi his trips to Winchester.

Iris Collis leaves her small size 4-1/2 shoes to Walter Flory. Don't get lost.

Stanley Cook wills to Conway Jenkins his ability to take teasing.

Judith Davis leaves her unfinished paintings to Barbara Jenks.

Robert DeShong leaves his Cadillac to anyone that can afford to drive it.

Charlotte Dodson wills her weight to whoever can control it.

Frances Everhart leaves her position as forward on the basketball court to Barbara Childs. Help them win a few.

Reid Everly wills his job as president of S.C.A. to one of next year's capable seniors.

Betty Lou Fishpaw leaves her willingness to work on any committees for the benefit of all, to Bonnie Carlisle. We know you will too, Bonnie.

Ruth Franklin bestows her study habits on Jack Franklin. Hope to see you on the Honor Roll.

Sara Fritts leaves her slide rule, log book and physics book to any ambitious junior girl.

Erbie Garrett wills his ability to be quiet in class to anyone who can live up to the reputation.

Elaine Getts leaves her government book to Mary Willingham. Don't work too hard.

William Hausenfluck bestows upon Jimmy Fowler his talent (?) to impersonate Fats Domino.

Charles Heflin leaves his place in D.E. class to Buckie Feltner.

Norman Heflin leaves his athletic ability in all three sports to Leroy Tomblin. We know you can do it.

Peter Hobert leaves all the headaches as Editor-in-Chief of the "Talon" to some energetic and talented junior.

Carole Hummer wills to Linda McClaughry her short, dark hair. How would you like the change, Linda?

Robert Jackson leaves his curly hair to Donnie Fuller.

Lola Johnson wills her appetite to Doris Pyne so her cheeks will stay rosy.

Wayne Jones leaves to Benny Moore his carton of "Luckies."

Darrell Jones wills his basketball uniform to the "star of the J.V.'s", Louis Athey.

Larry Larrick leaves his school bus route to Dickie Smith.

Gail Levi leaves all the problems as picture editor of the "Talon" to Shirley Silman. Hope you don't have too many.

Allen Locke leaves his pint-size desk to Blanton Allen.

Nelson Longerbeam bestows upon Danny Baxter his witty remarks.

Richard Marlow leaves his "Elvis Presley" hair cut to Jimmy Jenkins.

Robert May leaves to Gerald Carroll his long side burns. Not that you don't have your own.

Geraldine McClaughry wills her art ability to Daisy Wilson. That doesn't include writing letters every day, either, Daisy.

Patricia Miley leaves to Jenny Lynn Levi her enjoyment and skill in all athletic activities; not that you need it, Jenny.

Norma Monroe leaves to Louise Monroe her job in the 5 & 10 Cent Store.

Lloyd Allen Painter wills to H. M. Baker his opportunity to go to All State Band.

Robert Peffer wills his farming ability to Kenneth Peffer. Work hard to carry on the tradition.

Bette Perry leaves her love of flowers to any sophomore who wants a florist shop of her own.

Kemper Price leaves his trip to Boys' State to a junior boy. Hope you have fun.

Michael Reardon wills his place in the agriculture shop to Sammy Buckley.

Wilton Royston bestows his formula for keeping quiet in class to Henry Kerns. Use it!

Carroll Shepherd leaves his friendliness to everyone who thinks it has gone out of style.

Cora Marie Shirley bestows her giggles on Janet Crim provided she keeps everyone happy.

William Staples wills some of his height to G. W. White. Don't grow all at once.

Sarah Sipe bestows her position of captain of our cheerleaders on any girl who has a lot of pep and vitality.

Pauline Smallwood bequeaths her good times to Hilda. Have fun, Sis.

Betty Tharp leaves her job of playing the piano in assembly to Madelyn Ramsburg.

Leon Tomblin leaves his bowlegs to next year's fullback. Drive on!

Harold Whitacre leaves to Bill Thompson his English book. It comes in handy.

Betty White wills her glasses to Norma Lou Ashby to keep a close watch on a certain Junior boy.

Elva White leaves her A's in shorthand to everyone that needs them. Don't all of you grab them.

Lastly we of the senior class would like to leave to the juniors, our debts and unfinished business, our books, and all the work that is necessary to provide all the joys and fun of being a senior.

To the faculty of Clarke County High School we wish to express our appreciation for the unfailing guidance, patience and understanding you have shown us.

As the Class of 1957 moves forward may you, the faculty, see in us those qualities you have tried to keep ever before us.

Herein we do place our seal to this, the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1957.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

The McGuffey Future Teachers of America Club, added the tenth recognition seal to its charter this year.

In choosing the name, McGuffey, the club realized the debt America owes to the author of the famed McGuffey Readers and accepts as its purpose the enlistment of the finest young people in the teaching profession.
